

One Another: "Words of Encouragement" – Ephesians 4:29-32

God calls us to treat people in a different manner than we did before we gave our lives to Christ. All believers are partakers and participants of our heavenly calling. As followers of Jesus, we are to take off the old and put on the new. Encouraging one another with words is a crucial step in loving one another and showing the world who we are and whose we are. Our speech should be a reflection of the Holy Spirit's working, bringing value to those around us.

The words we use have _____.

The source of our words is the _____.

Our corrupting words will _____ the Holy Spirit.

Our response is to _____ what grieves the Holy Spirit.

Every word ... all good ... all grace ... all the time.

One Another: "Words of Encouragement" – Ephesians 4:29-32

God calls us to treat people in a different manner than we did before we gave our lives to Christ. All believers are partakers and participants of our heavenly calling. As followers of Jesus, we are to take off the old and put on the new. Encouraging one another with words is a crucial step in loving one another and showing the world who we are and whose we are. Our speech should be a reflection of the Holy Spirit's working, bringing value to those around us.

The words we use have _____.

The source of our words is the _____.

Our corrupting words will _____ the Holy Spirit.

Our response is to _____ what grieves the Holy Spirit.

Every word ... all good ... all grace ... all the time.