

THE ALWAYS GOD: "Always Hearing": - 2 Kings 19:14-20; 20:1-5

Today we're going to look at one of the Old Testament kings by the name of Hezekiah. We are going to find that he had the ear of God, which was directly tied to his relationship with God. Hezekiah trusted in God, he had integrity and a faith that led him to stay close to God. This intimacy for us, our closeness to God determines whether or not He listens to our prayers. In our busy lives we become distracted which affects how God listens. The good news is, THE ALWAYS GOD is still hearing.

The "ALWAYS GOD" has a _____ ear.

The "ALWAYS GOD" _____ us to pray.

The "ALWAYS GOD" requires us to pray _____ prayers.

- Healthy prayer includes a healthy _____.
- Healthy prayer includes a healthy _____.

Our response, healthy prayer requires _____ communication.

- _____ can keep God from responding.
- _____ can keep God from responding.
- _____ can keep God from responding.
- _____ can keep God from responding.
- _____ relationships can keep God from responding.

If we can each one speak of Him as "My God," we may with absolute certainty say, I know the "ALWAYS GOD" always hears me.
